Vox signo Fortuna.

BALTIMORE—FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1825.

Additionally Attractive

is the situation now of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY, the 16th drawing having terminated yesterday afternoon without producing any prize higher than One Hundred Dollars! as will be noticed by our official list on the opposite page.

Previous to commencing, the 20,000 dollar prize was duly deposited in the wheel by the Commissioners, agreeably to the scheme and in presence of a large crowd of spectators who had been attracted to the drawing room by the interesting state of the wheels.—The drawing will be continued ON THURSDAY NEXT, the 10th Inst. as usual.

The Four remaining Drawings

As mentioned in our last, the four drawings which now remain to complete the GRAND STATE LOTTERY will take place on the days mentioned below, which will bring them to a close either on the 31st of THIS MONTH, (March,) or on 12th of April, as provided below. In thus giving timely notice, so that our customers in the country may have the opportunity of sending on their Orders, we hope they will do so without delay, otherwise they may be disappointed in procuring tickets, which are now becoming scarce—the price too, most likely will be advanced previous to the drawing of the Great Capital of FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, especially if the 20,000 dolls. 10,000 dolls. and 5,000 dolls. should remain in the wheel until that time, as in that event, so splendid a situation of the scheme would very much increase the demand from every section of the Union.

Sixteen drawings are now over, and there are NOW FLOATING in the wheel, the Capitals of 20,000 dolls.—10,000 dolls.—5,000 dolls. &c. as will be noticed more particularly on the next page.

17th drawing will take place 10th March.

18th drawing will take place 17th March.

19th drawing will take place 30th March.

20th and last may take place 31st March.

It will be recollected that agreeably to the scheme, the great prize of FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS is to be deposited in the wheel on the 19th drawing; and with the view of giving to distant adventurers the opportunity of renewing any small prizes which they may have drawn, or for making additional investments, it will be noticed above, that there will be an interval of thirteen days between 18th and 19th drawings—but in order, however, to make up for the extra time thus taken, the 20th will take place on the day immediately succeeding the 19th, viz: on the 31st of THIS MONTH (March:) Provided however, that in case the great Capital Prize of 40,000 DOLLS. should not come out on the 19th drawing, the Commissioners then will defer the 20th till the second week following, say on the 12th April, when it will positively terminate—in making this contingent arrangement, distant adventurers will have an additional period thereby, for completing their investments.

Whole Tickets, $12 | Quarters, $3 00
Halves, - - - 6 | Eighths, - 1 50

Remittances may be forwarded to COHEN'S OFFICE with perfect confidence, for if their Orders should not arrive in time, the amount enclosed will be returned by the first mail

Latest from the PACIFIC.—Lieut CAMPBELL, of the U. S. frigate United States, arrived at Norfolk on Tuesday last bearing despatches from Com. HULL for government, containing the official account of the total defeat of the Royalists in Peru.—Lieut. C. sailed from Callao on the night of the 23d December, touching at Panama and Carthagena. The Castle of Callao was to be given up on the 30th December according to the terms of capitulation. Chorillas had been declared by Bolivar, on the 20th December, as the port of entry for Lima, where there were a number of American vessels discharging. The U. S. frigate United States, Com. HULL, and ship Peacock, Lt. Com. KENNON, were at Callao, all well.

Arrival of Com. PORTER.—The U. S. ship John Adams, Capt. DALLAS, from Key West bound to Washington City, with Com. PORTER on board, anchored in Lynnhaven Bay on Saturday morning, and the wind being ahead, came up into Hampton Roads, whence she will proceed up the Bay the first favourable wind.

Gen. LAFAYETTE left Washington City on the 23d ult. on his tour through the Southern and Western States, and was progressing on his route At Suffolk, in Virginia, he was greeted by a deputation from the citizens, and was received with military honours by that fine martial corps, the "Suffolk Columbians," commanded by Capt. CHARLTON, and escorted to the Court House, where he received the congratulations of the authorities of the place, of the citizens, and of a large concourse of respectable individuals who had eagerly pressed into town from the circumjacent county, to greet his arrival. The same enthusiastic joy that has marked his progress through our country, was witnessed on this occasion. A splendid dinner was prepared for him at the Court House, and nothing was omitted that could tend to demonstrate the attachment and respect of his entertainers for their early and steadfast friend. A number of excellent toasts were drank at the dinner. On Saturday morning, after breakfast, the General proceeded for Somerton, escorted by a number of gentlemen in carriages and on horseback, where he was received with the utmost cordiality, and partook of an entertainment with the citizens, prepared in handsome style. After dinner he pursued his journey for Murfreesborough, attended by a deputation of gentlemen who had been appointed to meet him at Somerton and welcome him in behalf of the citizens.

Latest Advice from England.

By the packet ship Manhattan, arrived at New-York, London and Liverpool papers to the 8th January have been received.

President's Message.—The message of the President of the U. States was received in London on the 7th January, by the ship Camillus.—The editor of the London Times makes the following remarks on this national document:—"It is not merely as the last message which Mr. Monroe will ever communicate in his character of President, that we consider this an interesting production. To a lover of humanity and of public liberty, it possesses the valuable qualification of describing an amount of national prosperity, enjoyed by a people who speak our language, and are cemented to Englishmen by a common blood and lineage, superior to all that has been recorded of any community on earth. Towards foreign states, the President indulges a spirit of uniform and impartial good will. Aloof from the anxieties and heart-burnings of the Old World, he disclaims all share in those systems of policy which engage, combine, or distract the European powers.

The balance of power in Europe is declared to be a thing indifferent to America. The growth of the new Republic, near neighbors to the United States, the sympathy between their respective institutions, are dwelt upon with natural exultation by Mr. Monroe; and we are happy to see, he reiterates the maxim, that no enemy from Europe ought to be permitted by the United States to molest or disturb the Independence of South America with impunity.

We observe with satisfaction, the cordial and affectionate manner in which Mr. Monroe recommends to the legislative body, a consideration of the merits of M. de Lafayette, and, of his services to American freedom. The spirit in which this recommendation is likely to be acted on, may be judged from the reception given to the brave and virtuous object of it, by the Senate and House of Representatives, on the 9th December; each of these bodies appointing committees, to introduce him to their respective Chambers, and, rising when he entered, addressing him collectively through the Speaker, and paying him afterwards their individual respects. Who does not envy Lafayette's feelings; and still more, the feelings of those who did him this homage? Upon the whole, the speech of the American President, would repay the most studied and profound attention; and, as we have already hinted, might be taken as a useful model for great personages in other parts of the world, when they profess to enlighten their subjects by a Royal view of the national interests and concern."

Jan. 2.—We understand that the remainder of the Brazilian Loan has been taken by Mr. Rothschild. The original sum proposed to be raised by that Government in this country was £3,000,000 sterling, of which 1,000,000 only had been contracted for. His remarkable success in raising the credit of some of the European Governments by his contracts for loans in England, is the best guarantee to a similar result on the other side of the Atlantic; and there seems little cause to doubt that the Government securities of Brazil will, under his auspices, bear as high quotations in the money market as those of any of the continental States.

Miscellaneous Intelligence.

Exhibition of Manufactures, Washington, Feb. 23.—The rotunda of the capitol yesterday presented a very interesting subject of examination and reflection to the members of congress, and all other persons at the seat of government, in the samples of the manufactures of the United States, which were presented there for exhibition. It is sufficient for the present to say, that the manufactured articles exhibit a state of perfection, far beyond the general knowledge or belief, and worthy of all praise. The articles were all so excellent, that it would be difficult to say which were most admired; the woollen cloths, flannels, blankets, and iron work, such as coal grates, seemed to attract the most general attention. There were also exhibited, fenders, spades, shovels, hoes, bird-cages, bellows, brushes, in considerable variety.

Ohio Canal.—The Canal bill has passed both houses of the Ohio Legislature, by immense majorities. The revenue bill has passed both houses, and a bill for the encouragement of Schools, is before the houses, with every prospect of being enacted. When the news of the passage of the Canal Bill reached Chillicothe, the Supporter says, "it excited the liveliest sensations of joy. The town was brilliantly illuminated—a number of salutes were fired by the Chillicothe Blues, who turned out on that occasion—and our fellow citizens, with but few exceptions, vied with each other in manifesting their gratification at an event so auspicious to the future prosperity of the State."

Persons at a distance may at all times with confidence forward their REMITTANCES to COHEN'S OFFICE, for if the great Capitals in the Scheme should be drawn when their Orders arrive, and the state of the wheel not justify an investment, the amount enclosed will be returned by the first mail.

CASH as soon as drawn. Agreeably to accustomed promptness and punctuality, the Cash can instantly be had at COHEN'S OFFICE for all prizes in the schemes in which this Office is engaged. In the GRAND STATE LOTTERY of Maryland now drawing in Baltimore, the numerous and brilliant Capitals, as well as the judicious arrangement of the scheme, have caused so great a demand for the tickets, that the Commissioners are progressing with the drawing every week—Adventurers should complete their purchases without delay.
